

HENRY STEVENS' MOVEMENTS

9/14/22. Afternoon - "Lucky hook" to Applegate. Drove to Seaside Park (Max Chadwick). Fished until nearly supper time. Supper between 5.30 and 6.00, prepared by Mrs. Evanson; then downtown for mail and evening paper.

Took Mrs. Evanson home. Possibly telephoned Mrs. Stevens, but do not remember.

Went to Eger's and notified them fish were biting. Saw Mrs. Eger - Eger was not home from Philadelphia.

On return fished again. 6.30 Wilson. 6.50 Piard.

About dusk, shortly after sunset, 7.15 or a little later, Applegate fish weighed. Van Camp's wife, George Johnson. Spoke to Van Camp and wife. They saw fish being weighed.

Then returned fishing. Was joined at 7.45 or 8.00 by Eger, who fished nearly until 9.00. About 9.00 returned to house, cleaned fish, put them in ice box.

Returned to beach - did not stay long.

Returned to house, accompanied by Eger. This about 10.00 P.M. Eger and Henry Stevens in house - talked. He departed shortly after ten. Then busied himself locking up house - banked fire - looked at evening paper - saw Wilsons - completed plans for taking them to station next day; then retired 11 P.M.

9/15/22. Arose 5.45 A.M. Sun up 6.40 Daylight. At beach mullet fishing. Mellinger on beach with bathing suit and with friends.

Came in house - had breakfast 6.30. Took off rubber boots - changed water soaked clothes. 6.30 - 7.00 in house.

7.15 went downtown to railroad station. Piard says he saw me there. Waited for mail. Returned to house about 7.45 A.M. Chores about house. Evanson arrived 9.00 A.M. Dried wet clothes.

9.00 to before lunch busy about house. Do not recall lunch of Mrs. Evanson.

About 12.45, after lunch, to Point Pleasant with Wilsons - 1.30 train. After train left stopped in to see Borden, U.S. Cigar Store.

To Osbornville 2.00 P.M. or a little later, via Laureton. Picked up laundry.

Returned to Lavallette about 3.00 P.M. Between 5.30 and 6.00 and supper fished on beach. Caught four pound blue fish.
